Mark Patterson
2002 Cold Hill Rd, London, KY 40741
859-893-0147
Mark_patterson18@gmail.com

Objective

Secure an entry level security or network administrator position for company

Education

- Bachelor of Science; Computer Electronic Networking: Expected: May 2009
- Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond
- Related course work: Network security, wireless security, Windows Server, fiber optics communications, Cisco class, basic electronic components, and project management.

Skills/Abilities

Networking

- Installed operating systems and went through every step needed to secure the system.
- Worked with Windows, Linux, and Mac operating systems.
- Created users and login scripts, installed numerous operating systems, and work stations
- Setup Servers in Linux and Windows operating systems.
- Knowledge of home computer networks
- Familiar with many security tools and setup of these tools

People

- Organized and implemented the entire recruitment week for my fraternity, including food, and invitations sent to all incoming freshmen
- Very good with people and working as a team, and very level headed very easy going.

Leadership

- Served as Sigma Chi recruitment chairman, reserved various rooms for meetings at least once per week.
- Project management class, lead a project to install a home network and keep documentation as well as keep an entire team informed during each phase of the project.

Work Experience

Mechanic, Galaxy Bowling Center, Richmond (August 2005- current)
Responsible for maintenance and upkeep of the entire building including the pin setters machines.

References

Available Upon Request