

Critical Thinking Decision Revisited

“Convince an undecided voter whom to participate in the upcoming Presidential Election.”

Analyze the decision using the prompts given below:

- The most surprising or interesting point about this decision is ...
- The main issue, problem or question regarding this decision is ...
- Identify the purpose that makes this an important issue or problem (to me or to others) ...
- The points of view relevant to this decision (include unbiased and biased sources) are ...
- Some important assumptions I am using ...
- The key ideas, concepts or principles guiding my thinking about this decision are ...
- The following information is needed to answer this question ...
- If the decision is successfully resolved some important implications are ...
- If the decision is not successfully resolved some important implications are ...
- Based on my/our analysis of the decision the best way to proceed is ...